

THE ELKS TALE

Official Publication of Lompoc Elks Lodge #2274, 905 E. Ocean Avenue, Lompoc, CA 93436

VOLUME 45 NUMBER 1

PUBLISHED MONTHLY

APRIL 2016

Hello my Brothers and Sisters, It's finally time for me to step up and be your Exalted Ruler. After 30 years as a member this is something I've looked forward to for a LONG time. I sincerely hope this next year we can make great things happen for our Lodge.

We have been working very hard on getting ready for the Ritual competition. I never realized how difficult it is because the officers of the lodge make it seem so easy. I have been working on this twice a day for the past two months.

I'll do my best to meet everyone's expectations and make the lodge better; we're working on a lot of events to bring the members of our lodge closer together. Many of you may not know we started to do the 11:00 pm toast every night members are present. Hopefully we will keep this going.

I urge members of our lodge to get involved with a committee or on a cooking or service crew. Without the help and support of our members none of this is possible.

This year's Ritual competition will be hosted by San Luis Obispo Elks Lodge, right here in our own lodge on April 22nd and 23rd. Come in, watch some of the other lodges participate in the competition.

I would also like to invite you all to come into our lodge for lunch, served Monday through Friday (except first Thursday of each month). I look forward to seeing more members here in our lodge more often.

Come on down and join in the fellowship

Fraternally Yours

Dan Oliveira, Exalted Ruler

Leading Knight

All, I have been afforded the privilege of serving as your Leading Knight this year (I'm not crying either). I wanted to make sure I continued with my support. I didn't want to serve and run so I offered to support in whatever capacity I was needed (glutton you say?). I want to do my best to support our new Exalted Ruler and make his year the best ever.

This month I attended a clinic in Santa Barbara for the officers. One of the many topics was cliques in the lodges. Throughout the discussion I learned a few things. We all have them and it is natural for people to gravitate towards those that they are comfortable with (do I sound like I'm letting myself off the hook here?). The campers know and like the other campers so they hang together. The golfers all know other golfers so they tend to stay as a group. The wine people hang with the other wine people. We're comfortable with our group. It doesn't mean

we can't encompass others, it's not a flaw it's just a natural gravitation.

Another big topic this year was the membership and bringing our new members into the fold. We spend a lot of time recruiting them and taking them through the process. They have to be proposed, investigated, voted, oriented and initiated to join our Lodge. After they are members and we get to add another number to our rolls. Some get lost in the cracks through and don't find an avenue to offer their support. The result is we might lose them because they don't get the inclusion they were seeking when joining (that's the clique part I mentioned before).

Okay, yes, I have a point to all this. I would like to make an offer to new members or old members who are looking to support me on a cook crew. I can be reached at 717-2480 and text is best. I am hoping to introduce at least one new person each time my crew comes up. I am looking for those who would want to serve (and perhaps have a glass of wine) on a Wed. or Fri. and get involved (and there is not Huck and the fence painting going on here). It is an opportunity to get to know the kitchen and become familiar with the operation and meet new people. Perhaps use it as a platform to launch your own cook crew. Remember though it is also a responsibility because you are committing to be there. Hope to hear from you.

Sherri Giovanacci, Leading Knight

Lecturing Knight

Greetings, a New Year, New Officers and New Challenges; what to expect? I have an idea! Practice Brotherly Love. But what is Brotherly Love? By definition according to the dictionary; "the kindly and lenient attitude towards people. What a concept. I for one have not practiced this in a very long time. But, I have vowed to myself to change! To treat folks in a kinder, gentler way without judging, without accusing, and without condemning.

A long time ago I heard the phrase; "The road is long and hard and none of us are getting out alive". So with that said, is it not better to extend a hand, warm thought or compliment to your fellow man?

Our lodge is looking for folks that are ready to help out. If you have some spare time, Ask . . I'm sure there is something we can all do help grow in camaraderie and lasting friendships.

Fraternally, David Oliveira, Lecturing Knight

March Elk of the Month
KELLY HAMILTON

I would like to announce Kelly Hamilton as the Elk of the Month. The Wood Chucker's are busy all the time. They continue to have a backlog of orders to fill. They have on a regular basis sent out the call asking for some assistance. Finally they have an extra person to help with the workload. I thank you for the hard work, the assistance and the participation.

Sherri Giovanacci Exalted Ruler

SECRETARY'S REPORT

New membership cards have been mailed to all paid members except those just mailed into the Lodge. If you have not received your new membership and mailed it in at least one week before April 1, contact my office to see if we have a record of your payment. The new key card is Red (six month card is Silver). Door locks will be changed on Friday, April 1, 2016.

Another reminder; Membership Years. The year sticker on your membership indicates the current number of years you have been a member. If your new 2016-2017 Membership card says 15 years, that means you are now starting your 15th year and will have a total of 15 years on March 31, 2017.

We are still having problems with Proposers of New Members insuring that they attend Orientation briefing before initiation. This is a mandatory briefing prior to being initiated. Proposers should contact and insure their new member is aware of this briefing and will attend. We send out notices to the new member and proposer after they have been elected by the membership.

Guest Sign-Ins – It is your responsibility to sign-in any guest(s) you bring to the Lodge in the Visitor's Book at the Lounge Door. If you don't sign them in they could be asked to leave the Lodge. This is a closed club and, as such, all guests must be signed in.

The new Officers have been sworn in and need the support of the Lodge Membership to do their jobs, so give them all the support you can.

Carl Watkins: Was at Cottage Hospital ICU due to a stroke. Both Carotid Arteries were partially blocked; a stint has been inserted in one artery, stent to be inserted in second artery at a later date.

Fred Steger: Fell in Members Lounge; hit his head, and taken to Cottage Hospital ICU, held for observation.

Bonnie Townes: (widow of Luis W. Townes) is at Care Center in Morrow Bay, not doing well, please put her in your prayers.

This is my first Veterans Report since the death of Jerry Davis. It has been very hard for me to get over his death. I helped him with the Elks Tale, and he always made my report so much better than I could write. Thanks to Joyce Moiha, the Elks Tale is still being put out, but we are still looking for an Editor for the Elks Tale.

I'm continuing as your Veteran's Chairperson, it has been an honor to hold this position with our Lodge. Being a Vet of both the Korean War and Viet Nam, I feel it's my duty to help Veterans in our area. I have had a lot of great help through the years, without that help, this program would have died years ago, again, many thanks to all of you.

I’m still collecting Aluminum cans and plastic bottles for our Vets Fund.

I also laminate cards and pictures up to 8” x 10”, cost continues to be $1.00 donation also for the Vets Fund. A box is located at the Members bar for you to drop your cards in.

This month’s Vets push is on the 15th of April, Remember Tax Day is the 18th of April.

Thank you SOOOO Much!

Wayne Davis not only volunteered to assist with our bulletin, he's been at the office to learn what goes into the bulletin, where the information comes from, how to tackle the printer and print the over 700 bulletins we then mail out. Yep, he's even been here to help fold the more than 700 bulletins to prepare them to mailing.

THEN he's made it possible for us to have Microsoft Office Suite software to use in the Bulletin Office! Boy is that great for me and I'm sure for whoever chooses to take over compiling the Elks Tale.

February’s campout took place in Paso Robles at the Wine Country RV Resort with 12 rigs attending. Our Trail Bosses, Shirley & Ed Thorns, organized Friday’s night’s dinner at Big Bubba’s Bad BBQ. Jailhouse seating was provided to 8 members due to some outlaw type characteristics. The riding bull was not available so no one got thrown to the mat.

March’s campout took place near Pismo Beach at the Pismo Coast Village RV Resort with 12 rigs attending. Our Trail Bosses, Pat & Jay Jure organized the activities within the Club House and on-site restaurant – the Prime Rib was excellent! Rain, wind, & high surf made the campout very exciting!
